[STUDENT REGISTRATION FILE]

The Admissions Committee will compile a set of documents that will constitute an application to EMP- Faculty of Medicine. To complete the dossier, you must submit the following to the Office of Admissions & Registration at the main campus, the EMP building in front of Ain Shams General Medicine Hospital;

- Two (2) recent passport-size photographs.
- A photocopy of your Identity Card or Passport and proof of second nationality if applicable.
- A photocopy of your General Certificate of Education, or its equivalent. (expect for early admission)
- A photocopy of the letter of your admission to Ain Shams Faculty of Medicine. (expect for early admission)
- The application process is for a fee determined by the administration at time of examination to cover all admission exams fees (domestic and international)
- The original application process is for a fee of 1000 EGP for Egyptians, / 200 USD for non-Egyptians. This is to cover all admission exams fees, including the English language exam, the IT exam, and the personal interview, for one run, if the student fails in the English or IT exams or is not satisfied by his/her results, he may apply to the succeeding exam (if applicable) for an additional fee. THERE IS NO RE-DO for the personal interview.
- In case of early application, you will declare that you are obliged to present all needed papers before actual admission.

The application dossier must be submitted in full before the published deadline dates. Incomplete or incorrect applications cannot be considered by the Committee. All documents submitted to complete the application for admission are the property of the EMP and may not be reclaimed by the applicant. In case any of the above documents are not submitted, they will be considered as “pending”. Their submission is essential before the decision of the admission committee is taken.

When you have submitted the required documents listed above, the “Office of Admissions & Registration” will inform you of the required “Entrance Examinations” and of the dates and places at which they will be administered.

Your application is valid only for the academic year to which you are applying.

You will be informed of the Admission Committee’s decision on the date announced by the EMP or you may consult the EMP website.

All applications are considered by the administration without any form of discrimination and with the highest degree of transparency
